

High Cost Case Review Project Summary

The High Cost Case Review Project Committee is comprised of representatives from DHS, DCYF and MHRH. In addition, there is also staff to support data and analytics requests.

The members of the Committee include Ann Martino and Ellen Mauro (co-chairs), and Shayne Amaral, Tanya Alderman, Rebecca Boss, Diane Bynum, Nolan Byrne, Alison Croke, Holly Garvey, Lisa Kirshenbaum and Judi Lena.

The Project Committee has been charged with identifying potential costs savings. This is being accomplished through data analysis and benchmarking research on how other states, such as Washington and Massachusetts are achieving cost savings through high cost case review initiatives. In addition, each state agency has developed a cost savings proposal specific to their populations and cases.
