

Rhode Island Medicaid Programs for Children with Special Healthcare Needs

Revised: May 2024

The enclosed services and supports are available to Medicaid eligible children and their families (Fee for Service Medicaid, Neighborhood Health Plan of RI, Tufts Health Plan and UnitedHealthcare Rhode Island Community Plan). Fact Sheets for each of these services can be found on the Executive Office of Health and Human Services (EOHHS) website at:

The Home-Based Therapeutic Services (HBTS) Program provides intensive home and community services to children up to age 21 with severe behavioral health, developmental or physical disabilities. All HBTS Agencies provide Pre- and Post-Treatments, Intensive Specialized Treatment and Treatment Support. Note: The information below was provided by each listed agency.

Personal Assistance Services and Supports (PASS) is a set of specialized health services delivered in a child’s home and/or community. PASS services are consumer-directed as parents can recommend PASS workers to an agency and are responsible for training and supervising their workers. Personal assistance services include goals in the performance of activities of daily living, the ability of the child to make safe and self-preserving decisions and participation in social roles and social settings. All agencies service the entire state of Rhode Island.

Respite care for children is a program that allows parents or guardians caring for a child with disabilities to have time off for themselves. To be eligible for Respite, a child must need an institutional level of care that can best be described as the type of care typically provided in a hospital, nursing home or Intermediate Care Facility. Parents/guardians will be required to find their own Respite worker, but assistance will be available. To apply for Respite, families with children covered by RIte Care seeking respite services shall reach out to their health plan or a respite agency directly. Families with children covered by fee for service Medicaid seeking respite services will be directed to complete an application and submit to EOHHS/Kimberly Splendorio.
